

General Memorandum of Understanding Between The Catholic University of America and Universidade Federal de Uberlândia

In order to advance friendly relations between the United States of America and Brazil, The Catholic University of America - located in Washington, D.C., The United States of America - and Universidade Federal de Uberlândia - located in Uberlândia, Minas Gerais, Brazil - join in the following general agreement on the promotion of education and academic exchanges between the two universities ("Agreement").

Both institutions will make every reasonable effort to encourage direct contact and research cooperation between their faculty members, departments, and research institutes, to the extent that they are able, under provisions of this Agreement, and endeavor to cooperate in the fields with which both parties are interested.

Both universities agree on the following general forms of cooperation:

1. Joint research activities
2. Exchange of academic materials and academic publications
3. Exchange of faculty members for research, lectures, and discussions
4. Exchange of graduate and undergraduate students for research, learning, and internships

Themes of joint activities, all arrangements and terms for any of the above exchanges, and conditions for utilizing the results of specific visits, exchanges, and other forms of cooperation will be negotiated on a case-by-case basis in the form of a separate written agreement signed by both universities.

This Agreement does not entail financial obligations for either university. Both universities understand that all financial arrangements must be negotiated separately and will be memorialized in the form of a separate, signed written agreement. All financial arrangements will depend upon the availability of funds.

The implementation of this Agreement will commence on the signing date and will continue thereafter for five (5) years. This Agreement will be subject to revision or modification by mutual agreement, in the form of a written amendment signed by both universities; any change in the terms of the Agreement must be discussed by representatives of the two (2) universities no less than six (6) months prior to the desired effective date of any such change. Either university may terminate this Agreement upon six (6) months' notice to the other university.
